Become a Certified Global Business Professional (CGBP)

August 8-10, 2017

Certified Global Business Professional Exam (CGBP) Training
Columbia, MO

The MU International Trade Center and MO SBTDC will host a CGBP exam prep training August 8-10, 2017 for business professionals ready to take the next step in international trade certification. This course is designed to better prepare professionals to pass the NASBITE International - Certified Global Business Professional exam. The training will cover the exam's primary content areas: global business management, global marketing, international supply chain and logistics, and trade finance.

The course instructor is expert international sales and marketing trainer Jim Foley, author of The Global Entrepreneur, past president of NASBITE, national co-chair of the ASBDC International Trade Committee and director of the Turner Center for Entrepreneurial Operations at the Illinois SBDC. The fee for the course is $550.
